F. E. Savage Is Given Rotary Orchid Thursday

F. E. (Pop) SAVAGE

F. E. Savage was honored Thursday at the assembly program of West Texas State by the presentation of an orchid by the Amarillo Rotary Club. This club selects citizens of the various communities of the Panhandle who have made a distinctive contribution to the life of their communities, and have served willingly when called upon for any type of work.

Dr. Roy Boger outlined the work of Mr. Savage, both as a citizen of Canyon, and a member of the West Texas State College faculty. Savage is director of the Demonstration school. Mr. and Mrs. Savage have been in charge of both Randall and Stafford Halls during their connection with the college. He won the name of "Pop" because of his great interest in youth and his work among the students.

Since coming to Canyon in 1921 Mr. Savage has worked in various capacities in the community, and has served as a member of the school board, director in the Chamber of Commerce, president of the Rotary Club, and official in the First Christian Church.

The presentation came as a distinct surprise to Mr. Savage.

Houston Bright and the Varsity Quartet gave a musical program following the presentation.

Altavene Clark Announces as a Candidate Congress

The following statement from Mrs. Altavene Clark was made Saturday in Washington, D. C., regarding her candidacy for Congress to succeed Eugene Worley:

I will be back in the District next week.

Within the next few days all of us in the 18th District will know more definitely when Congressman Worley's resignation will take effect and the date the Governor will schedule the special election.

I want to urge the friends I have worked for and with for the past 16 years to get ready to help carry our message to each home in each county in the District.

Shortly after I get home, I hope to announce more detailed plans concerning the campaign and to give each voter my views frankly and honestly on all public questions of interest to them.

Boys Warned to Use Care in Shooting at Birds in City Limits

When young boys start out with BB guns shooting at birds, it is a pretty sure sign of spring.

That dangerous time has arrived. Some person is liable to have an eye shot out by carelessness on the part of boys with guns.

Parents are warned of the seriousness of the situation as boys roam the streets with guns, shooting birds, tin cans and other objects which meet their fancy.

Be careful, boys; be very careful in the use of guns within the corporate limits.

Gist and Upchurch Left For Conference

R. B. Gist and W. H. Upchurch left Sunday for Omaha where they are attending the Western States Wheat Conference this week.

Other Panhandle representatives at the conference are Vern Reynolds of Dalhart, Kenneth Kendrick of Dalhart, and R. C. Buckles of Stratford.

Major and Mrs. Ogden Stroud and son Jeb, arrived last Wednesday for a two weeks visit in the parental W. H. Stroud home.

(An Editorial)

The Congressional Race

As The News sees it, the Congressional race is one of the vital issues in Panhandle politics for 1950. Congress will have more and more to say about the affairs of Panhandle citizens as the years go by, and there is little that we can do about it, except send the strongest person to Congress to ably represent this district.

Who shall we elect?

Shall we honor someone who has shown himself to be able, yet will soon retire from active service?

Or shall we select a younger representative, who is ambitious to serve during the coming years?

Shall we select a business executive of recognized ability, or shall we select a representative who knows the ropes in Congress and knows how to get things done?

Frankly, we are puzzled at the attitude which the people shall take.

Perhaps our opinion is no better than that of any other individual, but we are definitely opposed to "honoring" some person because of his past performance, and would not stay with the job any length of time.

Unfortunately Congress operates on the seniority basis, and the only way for any representative may hope to win recognition is to stay with the job for many, many years. This is the first qualification.

The second qualification is the ability of the representative to step into the shoes of Gene Worley and to follow his plan of operation. Worley followed Marvin Jones, and recognized the seniority benefits which Jones had secured for himself and for the Panhandle. Our new representative cannot start out with little or no chartered course.

In the third place, we are opposed to such a procedure, our new representative must be politically minded if he succeeds in accomplishing anything. Congress is politics, whether we like it or not. If we elect a representative who knows nothing about the operation of big time politics this 18th District will be a distinct loser.

While the list of candidates is probably not complete, we are fortunate in having several who want the job. These candidates are mighty fine folks at home. What they would be able to do in Washington is another question.

The first to announce was Mrs. Altavene Clark, an Amarillo woman of wide business experience, who was secretary to both Congressman Marvin Jones and Congressman Eugene Worley. She is now executive secretary of the powerful Agricultural Committee, in which the Panhandle is vitally interested.

The second candidate to announce was State Representative Blake Timmons of Amarillo, who now represents the 123rd District in the Legislature. Timmons has done a good job in Austin, and seeks to jump into a bigger field. He was in business before the war, and is now ending his work in the Law School of the University of Texas.

Walter Rogers, attorney from Pampa, and LeRoy LaMaster of Perryton are the other candidates who announced soon after the announcement that Worley would retire. Both are less known, but are reported to be good men.

Amarillo politicians are seeking to push into the race some of the distinguished citizens of that city for the purpose of "rewarding their past services. This would be a terrible blunder on the part of those who are seeking to run the political affairs of the Panhandle.

Six Hot Checks Are Passed to Local Firms

Six hot checks were passed in Canyon last Wednesday while the bank was closed on Washington's birthday. The checks were forged on a prominent Randall county farmer by a woman who posed as a relative of the intended victim.

Two men who are alleged to have been with the woman have been picked up by the officers. It is reported that a woman meeting the description of the alleged forger is under suspended sentence in another Panhandle county on a similar charge.

Weather Station Is Changed to West Texas State Campus

Starting March 1st, the weather observation for Canyon will be transferred to the campus of West Texas State. Dr. C. C. Held, head of the Department of Geography, will be in charge of the daily observation.

For the past 25 years the rainfall has been kept by Clyde W. Warwick. At the time the rain gauge was located here it was planned to also establish a temperature station. This was abandoned because of the proximity to Amarillo, as the station was then located down town.

Since the Amarillo station has been moved to the Air Terminal, it was deemed advisable to establish a full temperature station in Canyon. Dr. Held is very interested in acquainting his students with the apparatus used by the government and secured the appointment of observer on March 1st. A representative from the weather bureau at Houston will check the instruments before the actual work is started.

Ruth Gidden Is Named Leader Two Counties

Mrs. Ruth McCrerey Gidden has been selected as Census Crew Leader for Randall and Deaf Smith counties. Mrs. Gidden has accepted the appointment and will report to Walter S. Shaller, district supervisor, in Amarillo on March 8th for training for her new post.

When the enumerators are selected by Mr. Shaller, Mrs. Gidden will take charge of the crew of nine persons in Randall county and eight in Deaf Smith county to give further training. The count will start on April 1, and should be completed in about two weeks.

So far no enumerators have been named in Randall county. Mr. Shaller is busy in the 28 counties selecting the Crew Leaders as the first step toward the annual census.

Recreation Will Be Discussed at Thursday Meet

A large group of local citizens is expected to meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Baptist Church to discuss the creation of a permanent organization for directed recreation among the youth of the community.

A group of civic minded citizens have been working on the recreation plan for several months, and hope to bring the plans for a permanent organization before the group Thursday night.

All organizations in Randall county have been notified to have representatives at the meeting.

The selection of a director for this work is of the greatest importance, according to citizens who have studied the plan in operation in other cities over the nation.

A report on finances will be made Thursday night by D. K. McGehee, chairman of this committee.

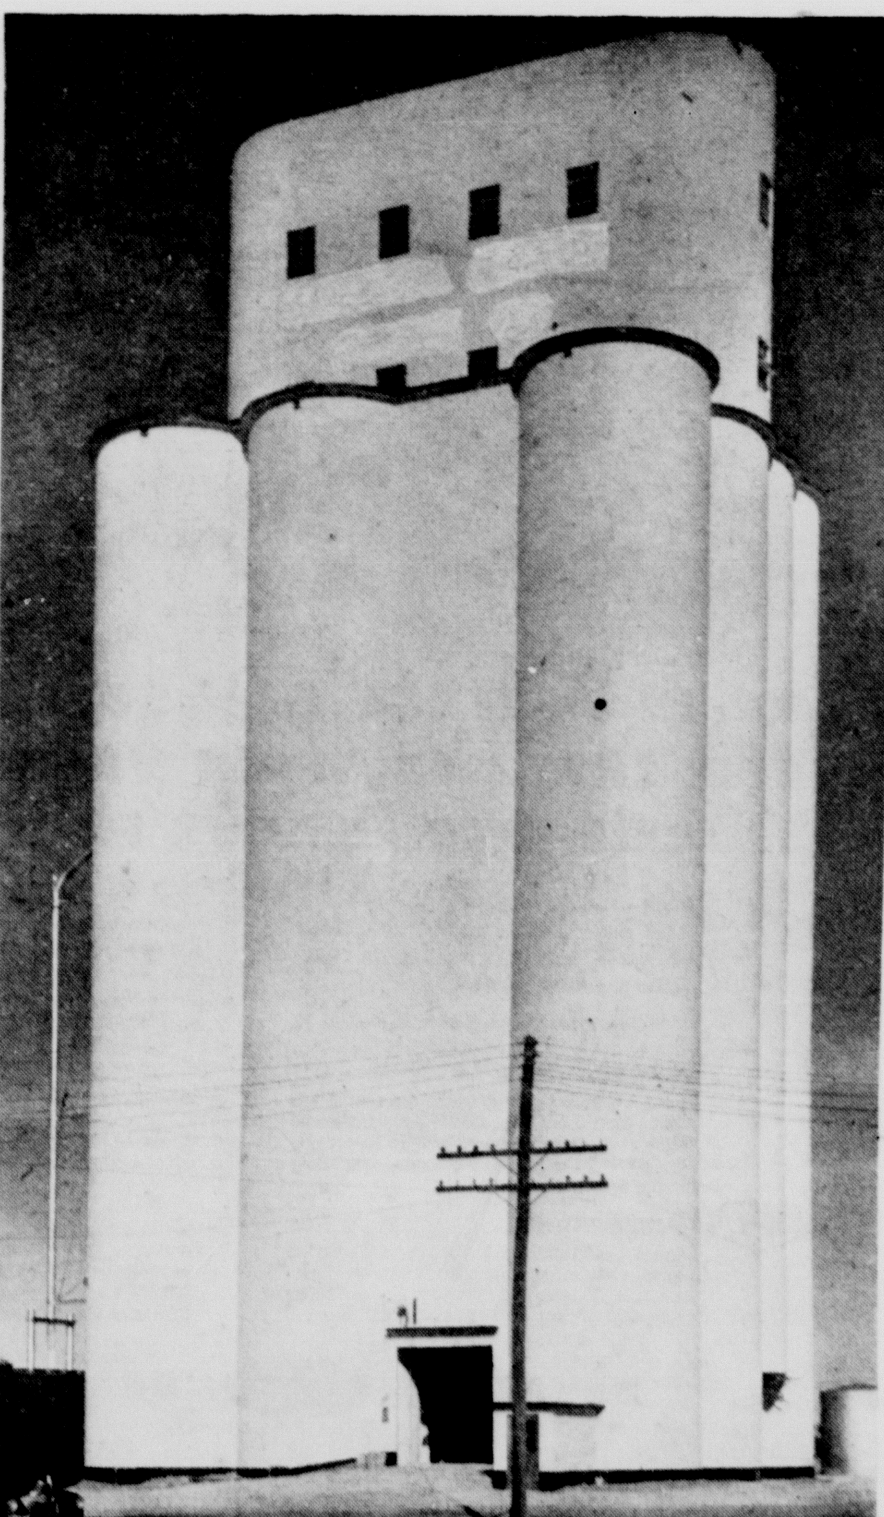

Light Rain Fell in Canyon Monday, but Moisture Is Short

It started to rain Monday morning, and the prospects for a heavy downpour was indicated by the moisture.

However, the rain soon stopped, and according to reports, it covered only a limited territory. The moisture measured only .09 of an inch in Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Cox of Amarillo were dinner guests in the home of Mrs. B. C. Taylor, Sr., Sunday when she celebrated her birthday and the birthday of her grandson, Larry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Taylor, Jr.

Consumers Fuel Association Has Let Contract For Building Elevator

The Consumers Fuel Association in Canyon has let the contract for the construction of a 320,000 bushel grain elevator in Canyon. The above is a picture of the new construction, which will be completed in time for the 1950 wheat harvest. The building will be west of the old elevator.

Paving Bonds Approved by the Voters 396 to 24 on Saturday

Citizens of Canyon overwhelmingly approved the $95,000 bond issue which was submitted to the voters Saturday. There were 423 votes cast, with 396 approving the bond issue, and only 24 votes being cast against the bonds.

The election returns were canvassed Tuesday by the City Commission, and plans made toward selling the issue as quickly as possible in order that construction work may be started in widening highway 87 through Canyon.

News To Publish Special Issue Bank Anniversary

The Canyon News will greet its readers next week with a larger issue than usual due to the 50th Anniversary of the First National Bank.

One section of eight pages will be devoted exclusively to Banks, who are extending congratulations to the first National. These banks are leading banking institutions of the Southwest.

Many Canyon business firms are taking this opportunity of extending congratulations and best wishes to the banking institution which has meant so much to the financial life of Randall county during the past 50 years.

Those business firms which seek to extend congratulations are urged to reserve space and have their copy in the News office by noon on Friday of this week.

City Election List Will Close Saturday Night

Saturday will be the final day for filing for places on the city ballot. The election will be held on April 4.

A new candidate for city commissioner filed Tuesday morning. Bob Collinsworth, owner of the City Barber Shop on the west side of the square, filed his name as a candidate for commissioner. The names of Clark Jarnagin and O. W. (Bud) Parker were filed Wednesday morning. This makes six candidates running for the two places on the City Commission. Paul Lindsey and Herschel Coffee were filed as candidates in December. R. E. Harrison filed in January as an independent candidate.

No change was made in the list of candidates for mayor this week. Andy Walsh was the latest candidate to file for this place. H. D. Curtis filed as a candidate early in January, while a petition was filed in December for Clyde W. Warwick.

The bid for the new chapel was sufficiently low that many of the features of construction which had been removed in order to bring the building within funds available will be restored to the plans.

Housing Authority Has Approved Plans For Fifteen Units

The Public Housing Authority in Port Worth has approved the plans for construction of 15 units of housing in Canyon, according to Ted Reid, chairman of the local committee.

This final approval was the last important step which had to be taken before actual work of locating the houses and starting construction is concerned.

Mr. Reid states that he hopes plans will go forward without delay and that the new units will be ready for occupancy by the opening of college this fall.

Attendance at Palo Duro State Park Continues Growing

Attendance at the Palo Duro State Park continues to grow as fine spring weather continues.

The total attendance of 2030 week before last was boosted to 2381 last week with 1680 paying admissions last Sunday. Attendance this year is more than 10 times as great as that of 1949 for the corresponding period.

A preliminary survey has been made of the new paving in the park.

The surveyor from the State Highway Department will run the final lines for the construction within two weeks.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Consolidation of Schools Is Approved by Student Paper

The Prairie, student publication of West Texas State, discussed the proposed consolidation of the demonstration school with the Canyon public schools in the last issue of that paper. This discussion has been underway for many years, but nothing came of the various ideas until recently when the issue was forced by the State.

While The Canyon News has always thought it ill advised to have two separate and independent school systems in a small town like Canyon, we did not choose to stick out our necks and try to make an issue of the situation. We have heard both sides of the argument.

The situation is different now. Under the Gilmer-Aiken law the consolidation is a distinct advantage to both schools.

The following is the editorial of approval from the student viewpoint:

When school starts next fall, an era in the history of West Texas State will have been added—and one which has been with the college for nearly all the years of its existence—the West Texas State Demonstration High School, as a separate part of the college.

Announcement came this week from the president's office that, effective next fall, the Education Building will become the grade school and junior high school building for the Canyon Independent School District. WT High will be merged with, and in the same building as Canyon High School.

For many years it has been discussed—the merging of the two schools, but since the college was a teachers college (that is, in name) it was thought that a demonstration school was needed for those who were to become teachers. And its purpose was well served by the teachers who were there and the students who learned the profession there. But with the increasing enrollment of both the college and the high school in Canyon, and the seeming decrease in enrollment of the demonstration high school, the merger was finally agreed upon by the Board of Trustees of Canyon Schools and the Board of Regents of Texas State Teachers Colleges.

Students in a small town like Canyon can be served much better by the one high school than they could with the two, which were, to be truthful about the matter, nearly always rivals in everything—so much so, in fact that it was rumored of fistfights occurring several times between students of the two schools.

And now, with the arrangement as it is to be forthcoming this fall, students of the schools of Canyon will receive their training in school set-ups much like that of other towns—in that the grade schools and junior high will be separated from the high school.

The college needed more space for classrooms with its ever-increasing enrollment, too, and with the drop in enrollment in WT High, it was thought that the space could better be used for the college classroom space.

Dr. Cornette and the Board of Trustees of Canyon Public Schools are in agreement that the merger of the schools will make for better all-around educational set-up for the students of Canyon, and will not hinder the teacher training program for the students of West Texas State College. Under the conditions such as they will exist beginning next year, neither the students of the college who are training to be teachers, nor the students in a demonstration school will feel quite as much like guinea pigs if they are learning to teach in a normal set-up, and if they are being taught in a normal set-up.

The move will strengthen both the schools of Canyon and the college. West Texas State is, indeed, growing up!

Congress Draws Great Interest As Worley Gets Federal Bench

Congressman Eugene Worley has finally landed the lifetime job as a federal judge, and will probably resign soon as a member of Congress. This district will therefore be honored by having two former Congressmen serving on important courts for lifetime. The first promotion was drawn by Marvin Jones, who was succeeded by Worley.

The promotion of Congressman Worley has been predicted for several months. As a result there will be a full schedule of candidates seeking the post in a special election, which will probably be held soon.

Mrs. Altavene Clark announced several months ago that she would seek the post if Worley retired. She is a former secretary to both Marvin Jones and Gene Worley.

State Representative Blake Timmons has announced that he will be a candidate for Congress. This will leave his place in the State House of Representatives vacant.

A few weeks ago it looked like a drab summer for politics.

With the prospect of Pappy O'Daniel getting into the race for Governor, we may have plenty of fun this year.

Cut rates and below-cost prices rarely help the individual who thinks he gets an advantage through them.

One of these days we will know all there is to be known and there won't be any excuse for us to linger around.

It is surprising how good some businesses become when the Department of Justice institutes a monopoly suit.

Obey the rules of the road if you would like to live longer.

The trouble with most reformers is that two of them so rarely agree.

There are many people who think anything is evil if many people like it.

We Americans are entirely too careless and we pay for it with human lives.

Advertising is not a matter of claiming the world and over-stating what you have to sell.

If automobiles continue to kill and maim, a man will soon have to fly as a matter of safety.

Well, we don't think anybody can blame the dries for the bootlegging going on over the nation now.

Fair Practice Proposal of the President Has Wings Clipped

Just why the administration in Washington would seek to continually try to widen the break of friendship and mutual understanding within the Democratic party is little understood by most Democrats.

Frankly, it seems to us, that the President thinks that he can get along without the support of Southern Democrats, which in many elections have been about the only loyal followers of the party.

The President follows the footsteps of FDR in gathering up minority groups and appealing to them for support, thus making it possible to win in spite of Southern opposition.

The Fair Practice act is the worst type of administrative appeal to the prejudices of the voters in the industrial North. As a matter of fact, race discrimination is not only practiced in the South, but in many sections where the President has been obtaining his strongest support.

A coalition of Southern Democrats and Northern Republicans defeated the purpose of the administration to saddle the Fair Practice Act upon the nation. In spite of the ever increasing number of vital issues confronting the nation, the President sought to continue in office by appealing to the prejudices of minorities throughout the nation which were located in vital spots.

People of Canyon Should Be Complimented for Vote Interest

This is written and will be published before the bond election on highway widening has been voted upon by the taxpayers of Canyon. We wish that we knew today what that vote will be, but you will find the results in this issue on another page.

Several things have stood out clearly in this campaign:

They have gone at the problem with open minds. We have heard no wild criticism against, or vague promises for the bond issue.

There has been no apparent organized opposition to the bond issue. This is remarkable, and a very healthy sign.

This is a good example for other elections to follow. In April we shall elect members of the school board. These members have a big job ahead of them. Likewise in April we shall elect a new City Commission which will have heavy responsibilities for the coming two years.

In July we will have the July Democratic primary. This will be the voters opportunity to nominate public officials. Those who do not win a majority in July will again present their cases in August.

In November we shall elect those who are nominated in the primaries.

All of these elections are of vital interest to the people and are of material importance to the future development of this community.

All that we can say now is that it is the obligation and pleasure of each and every voter to go to the polls and vote his opinion on the fitness of those who shall serve in our offices of trust.

The trouble with many community improvement schemes is that they depend, for success, upon a contribution from somebody designed to prevent everybody from working to a successful conclusion.

The world has need of all the goods that can be manufactured but, somehow, there seems to be difficulty in paying for them.

Feeding the nation may be a glorious calling but the farmers are just as interested as business in adequate cash returns.

Goodness may be the chief end of human endeavor but it has to be mixed with brains to mean anything to the world.

When a man starts his conversation by saying, "Please get me straight," it is very important for you to "get him straight."

The credulity of the average man or woman is evident in the ease with which they swallow accidental praise.

Have you ever talked to a loquacious brother who thinks it necessary to repeat his remarks three or four times?

You can hardly please some people, there are those complaining that they haven't had enough cold weather.

The people of this country may save money by not rearming but they may be saving their money for someone else.

Let's pull together for the improvement of living conditions in Canyon and see how much can be done along this line.

The farmer, having tasted governmental benefits in the form of cash, will be just like the veterans and the big business tycoons—like it and want more.

Wise men never criticize ladies where the ladies can overhear the criticism.

Few people are so badly fooled as the man who thinks he always tells the truth.

The trouble with most hospitality today is that it is paying back an obligation.

Pat an individual on the back, with a soft, gentle stroke, and, as a rule, he purrs like a kitten.

How many parents of Canyon have paid a visit to our schools within the past year?

If you have any business of your own, always remember that nobody else is looking after it.

One of the peculiar things about truth, in general, is that it requires very little argument to support itself.

Save time and friends—don't try to tell a parent what's the matter with junior.

The trouble about the people who know it all is that there are so many of them.

You can get into lots of trouble sometime by repeating what you heard somebody say.

If you expect home-town trade, trade-at-home.

Bufs Will End Season Here on Saturday Night

The Buffalo basketball team added two more conference games to their string of victories Wednesday and Thursday nights by defeating New Mexico Aggies 70 to 55 on Wednesday, and Texas Western of El Paso on Thursday night, 88 to 61. The supreme test of the season will come March 1st when Arizona University of Tucson will play the Bufs at Burton gymnasium. Arizona holds the lead in the Border Conference, and will probably come out again this year with the title. This team defeated the Bufs at Tucson while the Bufs played on the western trip.

The Bufs had been defeated by both New Mexico Aggies and the Miners earlier in the season on their home floors. Playing at home the Bufs put up better games and came out with the long end of the scores. The season will end on March 4 when Texas Tech will meet the Bufs at Burton Gym.

College Student Census Plan Is Given Approval

WASHINGTON: College students will be credited to the population of their college cities rather than their home cities in this year's census.

Census officials announced the plan, saying it would provide "more realistic" data. They said reasons for changing from the former system to crediting students to their home city population include:

1. Students reside in their college city for a greater part of the year than in home cities.
 2. With most colleges now operating summer schools, college town populations do not have the abrupt summer drop in population they formerly had. Students actually swell the number of residents on a year-round basis.
 3. Businessmen, from manufacturers to retailers, use census figures in determining advertising and sales quotas, etc. Thus quotas for college cities would be more realistic if the students in residence were counted.
 4. While college city populations are noticeably increased by crediting the whole student body to them, home town population counts are not decreased much because each loses only a few students.
- Officials said college towns have long sought the new ruling.

Brain Specialist Says Top Authors Often off 'Beam'

LONDON.—A London brain specialist has declared that great authors—to say the least—are sometimes "off the beam."

This analysis was made in an article in the British medical journal. The author is Dr. Russell W. Brain.

On the doctor's list of writers who have shown some mental aberrations were some of the great names of English literature: Boswell, Bunyan, Burns, Dickens, Johnson, Lamb, Ruskin, Shelley and Tennyson.

Some were insane, Dr. Brain said, in the sense that they could be certified as such and placed in institutions. Others, while not ready for the asylum, were classified as manic depressives, alcoholics, drug addicts, schizophrenics or "just plain nuts."

The doctor said Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities" bears marks of the author's preoccupation with violence and cruelty, and described this feature as a form of masochism (finding pleasure in pain suffered by one's self).

"Oliver Twist," on the other hand, was helped along by Dickens' hardening of the arteries, the doctor believes. Summing up his case generally, Brain said: "The genius of literature has higher intelligence, more intense and differentiated feelings, a better memory, and a greater capacity for words than the rest of us. These, presumably, depend upon a quantitatively richer organization of his nervous system. He also has dynamic quality which often seems to raise even his madness to a higher power."

Study of Weather Effect On Stone May Take Century

WASHINGTON.—Federal government workers have gone to work on an experiment which may go on for as long as 100 years. They want to find out how various stones will weather the capital's climate.

To determine that, they have assembled 2,000 rocks from 47 states and 16 foreign countries and built them into a masonry wall 13 feet high, 38 feet long, and 2 feet thick.

The big rock heap is in a field at the national bureau of standards which tests all sorts of things for the government.

German Paddles Small Kayak 30,000 Miles to Australia

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA.—For seven years and four months Oscar Speck, a local opal cutter, paddled an Eskimo kayak 30,000 miles up rivers and across oceans from Germany to Australia.

But war had come while he made his way down the Coral Sea and Speck was a German. So, with the end of his odyssey almost in sight, he was arrested and spent most of the next seven years in confinement.

Speck's amazing quest began at Ulm, on the Danube, in May, 1932. He was 23, canoeing was his pastime, and Germany was in the depths of a depression. It seemed to him a good time to get out of Germany for awhile.

He loaded his collapsible 18-foot kayak with a prismatic compass, charts, water containers, lots of condensed milk, chocolate and cheese. There was no room for a sextant, and anyway, squatting so near the water his horizon was only two and a half miles.

With two strong arms and two square yards of sail, he took off down the Danube, to Bulgaria, to Turkey, to Cyprus. He had meant to stop there. But he went on—to Syria; down the Euphrates to Iraq, and then along the Arabian coastline to India, thence to Ceylon.

Still he went on. He had a new goal now: Australia. The years passed. Kayak after kayak wore out and replacements ordered three months ahead, arrived from Europe. Speck used up five. He went to Burma, Singapore, Sumatra, Batavia, Sourabaya, Bali and the islands ahead. He capsize 10 times, was blown off his course, taken prisoner by tribesmen.

Hitler was almost unknown when Speck left Germany. But Hitler's war stopped him when he was 18 miles from Thursday island, and he finished his journey in a police launch.

Today, Speck, now an Australian, is comfortably settled in Sydney and has his own opal cutting business. One day, he hopes to revisit Germany to see his 80-year-old mother. But he will come back to Australia.

"I got here the hard way," he says, "I intend to stay."

Motorist Grabs off Mattress Before Van Man Can Recover

ATLANTA, GA.—A moving van transporting the furniture of W. B. Taylor dropped a mattress on a residential street.

The truck driver turned around immediately, but before he could retrieve the article, another vehicle stopped at the scene.

A man jumped out, stuffed the mattress into his car and sped away.

The truck driver was too startled to take his license number.

Mrs. S. V. Wirt Breaks Hip in Fall Saturday

Mrs. S. V. Wirt fell in her bedroom of her home Saturday evening about nine o'clock, breaking her left hip.

Mrs. Wirt was 84 years old in October. She and Mr. Wirt are pioneer settlers of Randall county.

There is no clear cut explanation for the fall. She attempted to sit down on a rounded top trunk and either slipped off or else missed the trunk.

She is in Neblett Hospital where she will likely be for several weeks.

Congress Has a Nationalization Bill Pending

A law has been proposed in Congress which would "sovietize" this country, and every business and every individual within it. It is known as the Spence Act—H. R. 2756. It would give the government, through the President, the power to take over the economic system of the nation if, in his sole opinion, materials or facilities were in short supply, if prices were too high, or if some other situation affected the national security, the foreign policy, or our economic growth.

Here, in part, is what the President could do if the bill became law, as described by John T. Flynn in his book "The Road Ahead."

1. He could decide how much steel, lumber, or anything else could be produced. Industry would be compelled to meet whatever production budget he laid down.

2. He could, if he decided they were necessary, build government plants and factories to produce commodities of any kind.

3. He could establish priorities for materials, on either voluntary or a compulsory basis. Mr. Flynn observes, "Here is the power of life and death over every industrial enterprise in the land."

4. He could regulate all exports and imports.

5. He could establish maximum prices on any material and facilities.

6. Finally, he could lay down any rules he deemed necessary to make the Act operative.

These rules would have all the power of law. And, to cap the climax, he could "make such inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or property of any person and make such investigations and conduct such hearings as may be necessary to appropriate to the enforcement or administration of the act." Of this provision, Mr. Flynn says: "Here is the power of seizure and search upon a hitherto unimaginable scale."

It may seem unbelievable that a "dictatorship bill" could ever become the law of this land. It is frightening to think that such a bill should ever be seriously proposed in a free country. It would give the President the same powers that Hitler and Mussolini had, and that Stalin has. And whether one agrees or disagrees with the view of any individual President is entirely irrelevant. The principle is what counts.

Many years ago a great American said: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." That is truer today than ever. And this incredible measure—which all alone, could turn the United States into a total government—provides terrifying proof of it.

LOYALTY 4-H CLUB NEWS

Refreshments were served to Miss Patterson, Mrs. R. A. Burrus and Mrs. Gus Leseberg, sponsors; Lila Hunter, Betty and Juanelle Burrus, Billie and Gwendolyn Carter, Gladys Leseberg, Doris Bourn and Sandra Curtis, members.

The Loyalty 4-H Club met in the home of Mrs. E. W. Bourn on February 23. Mrs. R. A. Burrus and Mrs. B. A. Burrus demonstrated the making of rag rugs. Refreshments were served to Lila Hunter, Billie and Gwendolyn Carter, Barbara Winters, Sandra Sue Curtis, Zora Lou Stone, Mona Beth Gillham, Betty and Juanelle Burrus, Doris Bourn, members; Mrs. B. A. Burrus, Mrs. R. A. Burrus, Mrs. Gus Leseberg, sponsors; Mrs. Leonard Winters and Carol Lee Hancock, visitors.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The Girl Scouts met last Thursday in the club room. After a business meeting and a games period, refreshments were served to Norma Glenn, Frances Boyd, Jacquelyn Barnard, Shelia Dixon, Judy Newman, Martha Harding, Barbara Shepherd, Avalon Brown, Mary Sue Bolton, members; Gwendolyn Newberry, guest; and the hostess, Mrs. Barnard.

George Garrett has been elevated to Ambassador to Ireland, from Minister, as a first step in a plan to make him President Truman's personal envoy, as successor to Myron Taylor, who recently resigned. The President is inclined to keep a representative at the Vatican in spite of some opposition.

Paul Hoffman, Marshall Plan Administrator, didn't originate the idea of a new subsidy to supplement the Marshall Plan subsidy. The new subsidy is proposed for American industries that find themselves hurt by competition from industries in Europe that U. S. has subsidized so that they can undercut American industries in competition for markets in this country.

Republican leaders in the Senate and elsewhere did not attack the Democrats' slow-motion use of the nation's laws to keep coal consumers from a crisis, because Republicans figured that they might lose some minor votes in November. Mr. Lewis, in his greatest display of power, had the leaders of both parties badly scared.

Frances P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, may prefer a proffered assignment as Ambassador to Ireland to the ambassadorship in Spain, a job that may not be open for some time. It is beginning to be agreed that a change is not very far off in the top civilian job in the Navy.

Probably they call it the H-bomb as a pointed reminder of where it would blow us all to.

Three Sign Boards Being Sponsored at Entrance of Canyon

According to Marshall Rockwell, Jr., commander, and Hayden Weaver, quarter master of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars, Lucius Penick, Post No. 5681, plans were completed this week for their sponsorship of three giant Scotch-lite welcome boards 36 feet long at the North, South and West approaches to the city of Canyon.

Work will begin this week on the project, and the completion of the boards will be realized within thirty days, Rockwell said.

Welcome To Canyon

The center one-third of the boards will carry a caricature of a college professor. The friendly phrase, "5000 Friendly Folk and the Veterans of Foreign Wars say 'Welcome To Canyon'" will be boldly displayed in brilliant radiant Scotch-lite. Across the entire base of the boards on the skirts, "Home of Palo Duro Park and W. T. S. C." will also stand out in Scotch-lite. These boards will be more outstanding and attractive than any in this area of this type, it was pointed out.

Individual panels checker boarded in brilliant colors, size 5½ feet by 3'-3 feet will be sold to the merchants on a four year contract, on a rental basis, giving them a two year option for renewal, in sponsorship of the project. Firm names of the sponsors can be seen in Scotch-lite by special arrangement.

Friends say that John L. Lewis has had a big thrill out of bringing U. S. closer to a complete industrial shutdown than any labor leader of the past. Even the President of the United States was awed by the power that Mr. Lewis was able to wield through the disciplined ranks of nearly 400,000 miners.

Harrells on Trip To See Ranches In South America

From Panama City, the remainder of our journey will be on Panagra D C 6's. They are large four motorized sleeperettes with pressurized cabins for high flying. Carrying 56 passengers and travelling over 300 miles per hour at 18,000 feet, they sail along so smoothly that one feels as if he were on an escalator.

Among the personnel on board the plane bound for Santiago, Chile, was Peter Grace, half-owner and president of Panagra airlines. He is the Grace of Grace Line Steamship Co. Also on board was Howard Shepard, president of City National Bank of New York City, one of the largest banks in the world, even surpasses "Chase" now. Mr. Grace was very courteous and congenial. Mr. Shepard saw our WBAP letters on Mr. Beaty's microphone and said, "Oh! Amon Carter."

A short distance out of Lima lie small islands where millions of Guano birds nest. (They are something like Penguins). They can eat their weight in fish. The fertilizer derived from these birds paid off the national debt at one time, but this source of income has been depleted by the birds having been constantly disturbed. Now laws have been passed to protect the birds and saying that Guano can be collected only at certain intervals.

NEAR LIMA—Richard Wright of Ft. Worth, who was also our host, is manager of a million acre ranch worth 3 million dollars, owned by a mining company out of N. Y. The ranch is 120 miles northeast of Lima on the east slope of the Sierra Mountains at an altitude of 6,500 to 14,000 ft. Water from here flows into the Amazon. The temperature falls to 18 degrees above in winter at night but the weather is hot winter and summer in the daytime. Mr. Wright is a friend of D. W. Williams, vice chairman of agriculture at A. & M. College. Percy Mimms of Houston, formerly Agent of Claude, Mr. Moore of Houston, member of our party and Mr. Wright were in the same class at A. & M.

Rather than pay damage suits continually the mining company bought this land. The damage was caused by settlement of minerals on the grasses and in the water, causing losses in cattle and sheep.

On the ranch quite a program of experimentation is being carried on. Mr. Wright had sulphate shipped from Montana to enrich the land in preparation for alfalfa. The annual rainfall is 26 inches in comparison with out 21 inches in the Panhandle.

During Wright's four-year management, the death rate of the cattle herd of 13,000 head has decreased from 19% to 4% and among the 171,000 sheep it has decreased 50%. Two thousand workers beside the miners consume all meat raised on the ranch.

The U. S. extension service pays half of the expenses for maintaining branches all over Latin America. They are working on major problems of: improving the breeds of cattle and sheep; better seeds; better methods of farming by improved machinery; and better health program.

SANTIAGO: Panagra officials and members of the American Embassy were our hosts at a garden party at the home of Mr. Parsons, Pan American Representative. We had a typical Peruvian feast or "Pahamanca," a type of feast which dates back to the days of the Incas. A trench about four feet long and three feet wide is dug. A layer of glowing red hot rocks is placed on the bottom. On this is laid chicken, lamb, pigs and guinea pigs or goats, potatoes, sweet potatoes and yucca (root from which tapioca is made). Over this a covering of banana leaves is laid quickly to keep steam in and finally several feet of earth covers all. It is left to cook from 12 to 14 hours. The result was an excellent meal of meat and vegetables with a banana flavor.

There is a special ceremony connected with the Pachamanca. At the time the pit is covered, the "god-mothers" and "godfather" sprinkle pisco, a local brandy, over it to insure that the results will be all that is hoped for. Acting as god-mother were Mrs. Harold W. Tittman, wife of the U. S. Ambassador to Peru; Mrs. James W. Walker, wife of Panagra's regional manager; and Mrs. Parsons, the hostess. The godfather was John D. Moore, executive of W. R. Grace & Co.

Before the opening of the pit, appetizers in the form of "anticuchos" were served. "Anticuchos" are bits of beef heart soaked in vinegar and wine, grilled over charcoal on bamboo skewers and covered with piquant sauce. With them are served pisco sours and chicha, two typical local beverages.

It is summer in Lima so we sat around tables, under brightly colored umbrellas, surrounded by hedges of hibiscus and walls covered with red bougainvillea.

There are many modern buildings in Lima along side of the old ones. It has a clean white appearance. The airport is the finest we have seen anywhere yet.

These are the names of some of our hosts in Lima: Harold Tittman, U. S. Ambassador to Peru; Mr. Campbell, general manager of Panagra (Mr. Campbell and Eddie Rick-enbacker were in the same squadron in World War II; Ray Olin Wesley, agriculture attache, U. S. Embassy; W. J. Green (Dallas), U. S.

Food Supply; Margaret J. Bazo, Institute of Inter-American affairs; Dr. Howard Flint of the University (same position held by Dr. Ples Harper several years ago. I can see where Dr. Harper gets his suave manner. He and Margaret would have been perfectly at home among that group of dignitaries). These people were eager for a word from home and an excuse for a big party.

25 New Members Are Added to the Christian Church

The First Christian Church of this city held a one day revival on last Sunday. They had been planning for this event since early in January, when 25 new members were agreed upon as the goal for the morning service, February 26. Several of their members met at the church for three consecutive nights early in the week and spent each evening as committees of two in calling upon members of the Sunday School and others who had shown their interest on the First Christian Church. As a result of their endeavors exactly 25 came to transfer their membership from other churches or to begin the Christian Life.

The largest audience in many years had assembled to add their encouragement and enjoy the results of the effort of the congregation to realize its goal.

A similar project will be conducted throughout the month of March to close with another Day of Decision of Palm Sunday, April 2.

Clark will lead the Adult study. Other leaders will continue, as on last Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend these studies which are most interesting because of Japan's intense interest in the dawn of a new day in their whole life, spiritually as well as politically and educationally.

Rev. A. B. Haynes has been Moderator of the Church Session of The First Presbyterian Church and will supply the pulpit at least twice each month until a new pastor is called. There will be other speakers from time to time.

February 12 to March 12 has been designated as the month of sacrificial giving. On March 12th the Protestant churches of the United States are uniting in "ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING." At this hour of the morning worship the First Presbyterian members will bring their gifts to the church to help meet the tremendous relief needs confronting the Church in Europe and Asia.

On last Tuesday evening the Business and Professional Women's Group of the Women's Council of the Presbyterian Church had a sacrificial meal and these gifts from that meal will go into this fund.

Four of Five Test Wells Are Proven Dry Holes

Last year, the American Petroleum Institute announces, the oil industry drilled about 7,250 "wildcat" wells—the greatest number in any one year since the discovery of oil in 1859.

"Wildcat" wells are test wells which the oil men drill in the course of exploring new or unproved territories. Through them new pools are discovered and new fields brought into production. Our proved oil reserves have now reached the enormous figure of nearly 27,000,000,000 barrels—and the "wildcats" are largely responsible for that.

A "wildcat," however, is not a safe, sure and conservative piece of business. It involves great financial risks since four out of five of them turn out to be dry holes. The science of geology has made great progress, but it isn't foolproof by a long shot. The only sure way to prove that there is oil in any given place is to go down and look.

Last year's "wildcats" cost the oil industry more than $350,000,000 in drilling expense.

Since only one out of five was a producer, the average cost of finding a worthwhile well was about $250,000. That doesn't include the huge sums paid to landowners for leases, the cost of geological and geophysical exploration, and other heavy and necessary costs. In 1949 the total costs of exploring for oil and gas within this county was over $1,000,000,000.

In a free enterprise economy, men will take these risks for the possible rewards for success—thus bringing progress and a better life for millions of people. What is true of oil is true of all the rest of basic enterprises.

Mr. Truman is given the impression that everything now is fixed up. Louis Johnson, Defense Secretary, promises to "lick hell out of Joe Stalin." Gen. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff, claims that his two divisions in Europe can handle anything Russia is able to send against them. Admiral Forrest Sherman, Chief of Naval Operations, is sure that his whittled-down Navy can deal with the 270 Russian submarines without much trouble. Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, Air Force Staff Chief, is happy with his B-36s. Idea is that Russia is stopped.

U. S. may be forced to end relations with Iron Curtain nations.

Randall 4-H Program Gets a Lift

Paul Lindsey, owner of Lindsey Motor Company, Canyon, left, donates a new Ford pick-up to be used in the interest of the 4-H Club program in Randall County. Harold Shahan, county agricultural agent, accepts the keys during an informal ceremony.

Mob Violence or Respect of Law Is Miners' Choice

For months the nation has been kept in a state of confusion by uncertainty about its coal supplies.

Under the rule of the United Mine Workers normal coal production has been prevented while contract negotiations were pending.

The issue has been used as a political football until the flouting of the public welfare has become a national scandal.

At last the Taft-Hartley Act is being invoked to bring the situation under legal control. It will determine whether organized revolution in one branch of industry, or the law of the land will prevail—whether one union leader or the courts will govern.

Many coal miners are being misled. By subterfuge or otherwise they are incited to disobey the law. They are told "you can't dig coal with the Taft-Hartley Act."

That is true, but men who disobey the law are subject to its penalties or the nation faces anarchy. If the United Mine Workers won't work pending settlement of their demands, other men should be allowed to work. If they disobey the findings of the courts they should suffer the penalties the same as any other citizen who breaks a law.

So long as laws are on our statute books they should be respected and enforced.

The country is now face to face with the spectre of mob rule or rule by law.

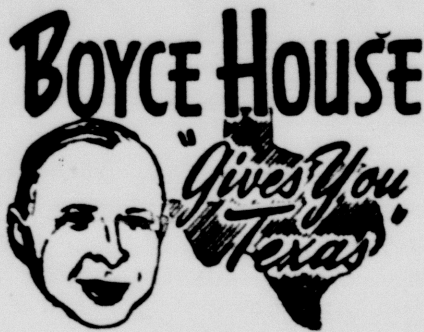

There should be no question of the outcome—law must prevail.

Winston Churchill did not please President Truman with his suggestion that another try be made to find a basis of agreement with Russia's Joseph Stalin. Mr. Truman has had an inferiority complex in dealing with Stalin ever since the Russian took him for a trimming at Potsdam in 1945, when the President was new to his job and inclined to be trusting.

Arms race, if kept up, is going to cost U. S. far more than the present 13.5 billions a year. In spite of public expressions about how strong U. S. is, the inside planners are getting set to spring a big new arms program on U. S. after the November elections.

SELF DECORATOR

Tito now wears only two medals on his chest: the rest he has sent back to their Cominform donors. The two he has left he presumably gave to himself.

BOYCE HOUSE
Gives You Texas

One of the most wonderful things on my grandparents' farm was the spring. The log house was on top of a hill and after a lad had strolled down that hill with a bucket in each hand, he climbed over a rail fence and went along a path that wandered through the woods. Birds chirped and squirrels peered around the trunks of the sweet gums and red oaks.

The spring was boxed in and was deep and as clear as a mirror. There was a tin cup beside the spring and the first thing you did was to have a drink. The water was pure and very cool; there never was, anywhere, water that tasted so good and could so completely satisfy your thirst. Then, after a drink, you dipped the bucket in and the surface quivered and wavered with rhythmic patterns.

It has been said that there is no sentiment in politics. But William Allen White in his autobiography gives an incident to the contrary.

When the extremists in Congress could not get President Andrew Johnson to go along with them, the House voted articles of impeachment. The margin in the Senate was going to be very close, so tremendous pressure was brought to bear on a Republican Senator from Kansas—but he voted against removing the President from office. And impeachment failed by just one vote.

The Senator became a political outcast and dropped out of sight at the end of his term.

Years later, Grover Cleveland was elected—the first Democratic President since the Civil War. The former Senator was at work as a printer and was handed a document from President Cleveland appointing him governor of the territory of New Mexico.

COMING UP

Now that all possible paragraphs have been written about Christmas bills, get ready for Valentine's Day, income taxes and Easter, gentle reader.

Millions of House Flies Will Soon Be Swarming Texas

Millions of flies help to cause the illness and death of thousands of children and adults each year in the United States. Hundreds of these casualties may be in the State of Texas this year if residents fail in their responsibility for developing the best possible sanitation measures in the area where they reside. Typhoid fever, summer complaint, and other intestinal diseases can be traced to the common housefly as the carrier of infection.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, speaking in this connection recently said, "Be sure that your windows and doors are tightly screened so that stray flies from a careless neighbor will not endanger your family. Be sure that flies are kept away from food, drink, and utensils used in the preparation of food. Make sure, if you live in rural districts, that outside privy vaults are tightly covered so as not to permit the entrance of flies. Infections from this source can be picked up and spread to human beings through contact with food, drink, and utensils. Keep all garbage covered until collected or buried. Eliminate all breeding places for flies and you will be helping your community in its work of controlling communicable diseases and preventing unnecessary illness."

Dr. Cox said that the State Health Department would furnish upon request a pamphlet outlining safe and practical methods recommended for use in fly control.

Agreement Reached on SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION

IN RESPONSE to a request by the Canyon Citizen's Education Committee a few weeks ago, the Administrative authorities of the West Texas State College and the Canyon Independent School District have worked out the following details to an agreement which will be of extreme benefit to both the College and the Public Schools students as well as to the Taxpayers of the Canyon Independent School District.

This agreement, between the Board of Regents of West Texas State College and the Canyon Independent School District provides.

EXPLANATIONS

1. That West Texas State College will lease to the Canyon Independent School District for the sum of $1.00 per year, sufficient room in the Education Building for an Elementary school. Said elementary school will consist of one section each of grades one through six (just as in the past), and all sections of the seventh and eighth grades of the Junior High Division.
 2. That West Texas State College will pay the Canyon Independent School District for any teachers required in this unification plan, which are not provided by the State Foundation School Act.
 3. That West Texas State College will provide also all maintenance services for the Elementary and Junior High School
 4. That West Texas State College will assume the financial responsibility of the Summer Schools.
 5. That the Canyon Independent School District agrees to allow West Texas State College free use of the Canyon Public Schools for teacher-training-laboratory purposes.
 6. That the Canyon Independent School District will assume full responsibility and Administration for all teaching personnel in each of the Elementary Schools, the Junior High, and High School.
 7. Both West Texas State College and Canyon Independent School District agree to work in co-operation toward an ever-improving public school system for the Canyon Independent School District, and consequently, an ever-improving situation for offering laboratory experiences in the teacher education curricula at West Texas State College.
1. All High School Students will then go to the Canyon High School. All other sections of grades one through six will continue, as in the past, at the Canyon Public Elementary School.
 2. The State Foundation School Program will pay for the majority of the teachers now teaching in the W. T. Demonstration School, therefore any additional salaries would not be extensive and would be borne by West Texas State College.
 4. The Canyon Independent School District, would, however assume the Administration of the Summer Schools.
 5. This, of course, will prevent the immediate burden of a million dollar bonding program for a new High School campus and buildings, because it is felt that our District could not possibly carry this much burden within the next few years. It is revealed however, according to recent classroom attendance records, that since November our scholastic population has increased between 15 per cent and 20 per cent in many rooms. A continuation of such a trend would require the addition of some classroom space by September, and consequently would necessitate the voting of a small bond issue similar to the one voted last year.

IT IS THE OPINION of the Board of Trustees of the Canyon Independent School District that this move toward unification is one of the most progressive steps ever taken to increase the educational opportunities of the school children in this District and it is foreseen that this will provide for a greater unity and co-operation among school patrons as well as between College interests and Public School interests.

In the past, classes of the High School level were limited and subject offerings were provided for only the larger classes, but with the advantage of a consolidated High School, more subjects and activities can be made available to students attending our schools.

It is proposed by the Canyon Independent School District Board of Trustees that the transportation service between the schools be made available in order that those students who are now in attendance on one campus, but who will necessarily change to the other campus September 1st., will have this transportation if they desire it.

In conclusion, it is full well realized by both the College and Public Schools that bus transportation service be-cessful, there must exist in every citizen an attitude of fullest co-operation and helpfulness, to make such a change in school arrangement effective and reliable.

Eaglettes Lose In District Play

The Canyon Eaglettes lost their first game of the district 10-A tournament at Tulia Thursday night. Their opposition was Mobeetie who downed them 49-35. Bobby Gene Ford was the spark of the Canyon squad pouring 30 points through the basket.

For this performance, she was selected to the all district team which was announced at the end of the tournament. Barbara McDougal made the second team.

Bobby was also selected as a member of the Amarillo Globe-News' All-Regional team last week.

The tournament marked the final game for the following girls: Bobby Gene Ford, Joanna Haines, Ruby Lee Bonds and Shirley Priddy.

Juniors Lose Games of Week; Eagle-Eggs Tip Hereford, 28-21

Canyon Juniors played Hereford last Tuesday and lost to the Hereford five by the score of 28-21. Tommy Middleton was the leading hoopster with 7 points to his credit while Ed Money rang the basket with 5 points. John Miller hit a field goal and free shot for 3 markers. Jim Reynolds and Arlen Ruthart scored 2 points each.

Thursday afternoon the Juniors played Horace Mann at the grade gym and again was the loser by a close score of 24-23. Don McDonald and Ed Money both paced 5 points while Jim Reynolds and Doyle Bourn made 4. Tommy Middleton scored 3, while John Miller made 2. The Horace Mann quintet is rated close to the top in the Amarillo Junior High League. The Juniors next conference game is Monday with Phillips, there.

Also last week, the Eagle-Eggs journeyed to Hereford to bring back a 31-26 victory over the Hereford eighth graders. Jim Reynolds was "red hot" to cop 18 points. Ed Money ripped the net for 9 markers. Arlen Ruthart sank 6 points while Bill Pond made 4. The half time score was 15-17, still in favor of the Canyon five who continued to lead all the way to win a victorious battle with the score of 31-26 at the final sound of the referee's whistle.

Marion Snowden Observes Piano Students Recently

Marion Kelghley Snowden, Eminent British pianist, demonstrated the Tobias Matthay method of working with beginning piano students, using children, in four lectures recently in the Canyon Public Schools.

Miss Snowden studied with Mr. Matthay for some years and later taught with him in his school in London. She is highly qualified to demonstrate the method which has influenced piano playing all over the world and which produced Myra Hess, the greatest woman pianist in the world.

Students, who played for her to criticize, are Marie Dowlen, Bobby Bellah, Charles Nester, Max Boswell, in the first group; second group were Johnette Weeks, Dorothy Craner, Charles Neblett; third group are Marcia Nan Barker, Janet Taylor; fourth group were, Charlotte Crain, Carol Ann Hollman, Ann Marie Barker, and Alice Mae Simms.

Mrs. Doreen Welch has been out of school due to illness. Mrs. Glenn Dowlen is substituting for her during her absence.

Jr. Red Cross Plans Assembly Program For Near Future

The Canyon High School Chapter of Junior Red Cross plans an assembly program to be given in the very near future. There will be a charge of twenty cents for admission (and any thing over this will be graciously accepted.) Money received from the program, which will be given by members of the Red Cross assisted by the choir members, will be used to supply a $50 or $60 box to be sent overseas. The box will contain any number of things such as writing supplies, toilet articles, books and athletic material.

Three schools: Canyon Junior and Senior High, Canyon Grade School and W. T. High will contribute to this box which will be filled by members of the Junior Red Cross March 11 at WT.

"We feel that giving to the needy should be part of every child's education. We shall appreciate any help rendered us," stated Miss Margaret Hillman and Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore, sponsors.

LOUD SPEAKER CHIMES

Jim Scott, our shop teacher, may be seen in action if one examines the front page of the North Texas State College summer bulletin. Mr. Scott's career there was interrupted by two years' service in the Naval Air Corps. He will be especially remembered by many of the students of that institution as one of their "red-hot" pep leaders.

Lorayne Carter spent last Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the hospital with influenza.

1926 Eagles Go To State Meet

"Twenty-four years is a mighty long time," especially to wait to send a regional basketball winner to represent the district at State.

In the spring of 1926, twenty-four years ago, the Canyon Eagles won regional honors and went to State. Then the team consisted of the following players: Jim Strain, Curtis Brown, Buster Brown, Pat Gerald, Cleveland Jones, Terrill Christian, Ira (Dad) Greenfield, Wallace Otis, Jake Watson and J. D. Hazlewood. Mitchell Jones, now Dean of Men at West Texas College, was the coach.

But bad luck dogged the squad. J. D., who was captain of the team, was stricken with appendicitis and had to be operated on and left in the hospital. Also, in the final game the Eagles were shut out by one point.

In all the intervening years, Eagle teams have knocked at the regional door many times, but have not been able to make the grade. "Let us hope the team may keep the winning habit frequently from now on," says James E. Miller, principal.

New English books are under consideration for next year's classes. The State has sent several books to be examined and most all the companies have representatives to explain the merits of their books. The choice of tests must be made by March 9.

Miss Loyce Elliott was out of school Friday due to illness.

Three Boys Get Regional Places

Squad Leaves Monday For Austin to Play in Finals

"Just three more, Gang, and we'll have State!" that's the battle cry of the Eagles. Canyon won regional by beating Levelland, Memphis, and Dumas at Burton Gym this weekend.

Joe Abbott and Troy Burrus paced the winners over Levelland, 48-20 with 14 and 13 points respectively. Canyon was never in trouble, leading all the way.

Ray Burrus was third on the scoring list with nine to his credit, followed by Garland Butler with three tallies.

Overcome Memphis

The Eagles overcame the Memphis Cyclones 54-30, in a tilt that marked a close game in the first half, but Canyon turned on the steam the second half with Joe Abbott scoring 15 points and Troy Burrus eleven, built up to the 24 point margin.

Garland Butler, Ray Burrus and Bruce Winn garnered nine tallies apiece.

The final game found both district 1-A teams pitted against each other for the second time in a championship tilt and the fifth time this season.

Garland Butler put Canyon in a temporary 2-0 lead with a one-handed push shot from far out. The lead changed hands three times before the quarter ended 11-10 in favor of Dumas.

After the lead changed sides two more times, Canyon went ahead 17-15 at half time.

In the third quarter Canyon built up a 29-18 advantage when Joe Abbott, Ray and Troy Burrus potted two gratis shots apiece.

Demons Rally

The Demons came out fighting Canyon's partial freeze in the last stanza and outscored the Eagles 8-4 Joe Abbott sank a long thriller from away out as the final buzzer sounded.

Troy Burrus and Joe Abbott tied for scoring honors with nine baskets each, trailed by Garland Butler with seven and Ray Burrus and Bruce Winn with four each.

Three Places

As in district, Canyon placed three men on the all tournament team. Joe Abbott, Troy and Ray Burrus made all regional.

The following men made the trip to Austin: Joe Abbott, Ray Burrus, Troy Burrus, Bob Busted, Garland Butler, Billy Morton, Glen Prater, Bob Ratliff, Harrell Slack, Billy Samples, Bruce Winn, Robert McClendon, Richmond Payne and Carl Crow.

Are you down in the mouth?

Well, Dr. W. A. Bucker, Dental Consultant from the State Department with town dentists are ready to yank 'em out! They are examining each student's teeth this week. This is another of a series in the Health Program of the Canyon Public Schools. The doctors are on the alert for signs of any diseases especially communicable ones, which might show up in the mouth.

The most common of these diseases are: measles, scarlet fever, mumps, syphilis, and venereal. Others that may show signs in the mouth are: tuberculosis, typhoid fever, chickenpox and smallpox.

Signs of communicable diseases in the mouth are: red spots with bluish white centers; small white patches on mucous membranes; the tongue may be like red or raspberry color; the tip of the tongue and its margins may be red with the central portion of the tongue furrowed, white, and yellowish; there may be bleeding of the gums; swelling of salivary glands; red and congested tissues of the mouth around teeth and tonsils; a whitish membrane usually covers the tonsils; pain is usually present and the patient experiences difficulty in swallowing; profuse bleeding; excessive secretion of saliva.

Signs which show in the teeth are malformations in the permanent incisors, canines and first molars and in the deciduous second molars; peg shaped canines; cusps or first molars show a lack of growth and are rounded showing a mulberry appearance.

A.A.U.W. Sponsors Clare Tree Major Play, Pocahontas

Last year more than 800 children saw the Clare Tree Major play, "The Snow Queen," brought to Canyon under the sponsorship of the American Association of University Women. This year, children of Canyon and the vicinity will have the opportunity of seeing a Clare Tree Major play which proves that history can be exciting. It is the story of "Pocahontas," to be presented on March 20, at 1:30, in the Administration Building Auditorium of the College.

Mrs. Major, founder-director of this organization, is often spoken of as the "best friend the nation's school children ever had." Educators and theatrical critics recognize her work as the best in the field of children's theatricals.

In the play "Pocahontas," Mrs. Major has taken from authentic historical sources the cold facts concerning the first white settlement at Jamestown, Virginia—the capture of Captain John Smith by Indians of the Chikahominy tribe, his rescue by Pocahontas, the young daughter of Powhatan, the subsequent efforts of both Powhatan and the English settlers to arrive at a peaceful understanding—and has woven them into a fascinating stage play, with color, enchantment, hearty laughs and excitement in each scene.

Authentic Indian songs and ceremonial dances, and the colorful costumes of the Indians of the Chikahominy tribe and the English colonists are used in the production.

Miss Novella Goodman, President of the AAUW, has announced that the committee in charge of arrangements for the performance is headed by Mrs. Joseph Findley.

Louis Johnson, Secretary of Defense, hopes to be able to overcome the impression he left with his recent promise to "lick hell out of Joe Stalin." Mr. Johnson did not intend to give the impression that he could lick Stalin between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning, but rather that, if Stalin did not lick the United States in a blitz, then the U. S. would end up, at some later date, by giving the Russians a bad drubbing. Idea is that, if the United States can survive a blitz, it can win a war.

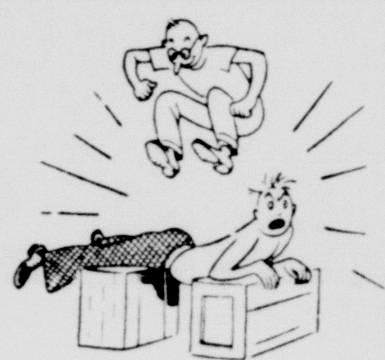

Gen. Omar Bradley and his colleagues on the Joint Chiefs of Staff are somewhat irritated at the inability of the Department of State to decide just what the U. S. policy is in several parts of the world. The Joint Chiefs cannot shape firm U. S. defense policies and lay the base for appropriation requests until they know what it is that the State Department has decided to defend.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Supreme Commander in Japan, is gaining Republican support for the idea that he should become Supreme commander in the whole Far Pacific area, with some diplomatic as well as military power. The thought is that, with available U. S. sea and air power, General MacArthur could accomplish quite a lot, once freed from restrictions of present diplomatic policy.

Fred Vinson, Chief Justice of the United States, is being called upon again by President Truman to give him some ideas on how to deal with political problems. Chief Justice Vinson still is No. 1 on the list of men Mr. Truman would pick for the 1952 Democratic presidential nomination if the President himself should decide to step aside.

John Steelman, Assistant to the President, is credited by White House sources as the official who shaped Administration strategy for dealing with the strike in coal.

More secrets than one, affecting more fields than atomic energy, are involved in leaks due to lax security regulations on the part of the British. President Truman is inclined to blame newspapermen for the fact that voters show an interest in the idea of a new Stalin-Truman meeting and are increasingly concerned by the cost of the present arms race with its effect on a badly unbalanced budget. Electrol Vote System Likely to Be Rejected

For many years there has been agitation to change, through Constitutional amendment, our method of electing Presidents, by abolishing the electoral college system as it is now constituted and replacing it with a system based on the popular vote. It now looks as if this proposal has an excellent chance of becoming law.

If it does, it will revolutionize the established pattern of political campaigning.

Under the existing system, the candidate who gains a majority in a state gets the entire vote of the state in the electoral college. It doesn't make any difference how bare the majority may be. He might carry a state by but a single popular vote—yet he would get the whole electoral vote, and that is the vote that counts.

The constitutional amendment which is now pending provides that each candidate's electoral vote shall be proportionate to his popular vote. In other words, if a man received 51 per cent of a state's popular vote he would get that percentage of the state's electoral votes instead of all of it. And if, on the other hand, he got 49 per cent, he would get that part of the electoral vote instead of none.

The influence this would have on campaign politics is obvious. For instance, the Republicans never spend much money or exert much effort in the Solid South. They know that their chance of gaining a majority in any of those states is but one short step removed from impossible. However, under the proposed new system, it would behoove the GOP to do its utmost in, say, Tennessee no less than in Ohio. Every Republican vote, even though the total was still modest, would help their candidate toward the White House.

By the same token, Democrats would no longer just go through the motions of campaigning in solidly Republican states such as Vermont. They'd be out to get the largest proportion of the vote possible.

President Truman has said he doubts if the proposed change can be effected in time to influence the 1952 campaign. But, as Jay Hayden points out in one of his columns, "All constitutional amendments recently adopted have run the gauntlet of state ratification in less time than would be available to complete enactment of the present proposal before 1952." The amendment repealing prohibition became law about ten months after it was submitted to the states. The amendment abolishing the "lame duck" session of Congress made the grade in 11 months. The amendment legalizing woman's suffrage was approved in 14 months.

In any event, it promises to cause important and far-reaching changes in the partisan political setup as it now exists.

SUNDAY DINNER

The young school teacher had just finished telling a small boy of a lamb that had strayed from the flock and been eaten by a wolf.

"You see," she said, "had the lamb been obedient and stayed in the flock, it would not have been eaten by the wolf, would it?"

"No ma'am," answered the small boy. "It would have been eaten by us."
